Opening our Hearts & Hands

Jesus said, "There was a certain rich man who was splendidly clothed in purple and fine linen and who lived each day in luxury. At his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus who was covered with sores. As Lazarus lay there longing for scraps from the rich man's table, the dogs would come and lick his open sores. "Finally, the poor man died and was carried by the angels to sit beside Abraham at the heavenly banquet. The rich man also died and was buried, and he went to the place of the dead. There, in torment, he saw Abraham in the far distance with Lazarus at his side. "The rich man shouted, 'Father Abraham, have some pity! Send Lazarus over here to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue. I am in anguish in these flames.' "But Abraham said to him, 'Son, remember that during your lifetime you had everything you wanted, and Lazarus had nothing. So now he is here being comforted, and you are in anguish. And besides, there is a great chasm separating us. No one can cross over to you from here, and no one can cross over to us from there.' Jesus

Luke 16:19-26

We Can Find Healing of our Spiritual Blindness When:

_____ & give ourselves to the need before us
At his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus who was covered with sores.

Initiative is doing the right thing without being told.
Victor Hugo

_____ outweighs our fear of consequences
“The rich man shouted, ‘Father Abraham, have some pity! Send Lazarus over here to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue.

One of Satan's most deceptive and powerful ways of defeating us is to get us to believe a lie. And the biggest lie is that there are no consequences to our own doing. Satan will give you whatever you ask for if it will lead you where he ultimately wants you.
Charles Stanley

_____ is greater than of the world
“But Abraham said to him, ‘Son, remember that during your lifetime you had everything you wanted, and Lazarus had nothing.

Change your thoughts and you change your world.
Norman Vincent Peale

_____ of love as an overflow of Grace
And besides, there is a great chasm separating us.

My Prayer to Come Back from Crushed

Teach me Lord to open my heart, my hands to those living right outside my gate, the people I pass daily. Help me to see them not as a burden on our community but as an opportunity to share Your Love. Heal my heart to share Your Grace.
