Tell God Our Need

Then Jesus told this story to some who had great confidence in their own righteousness and scorned everyone else: “Two men went to the Temple to pray. One was a Pharisee, and the other was a despised tax collector. The Pharisee stood by himself and prayed this prayer: ‘I thank you, God, that I am not like other people—cheaters, sinners, adulterers. I’m certainly not like that tax collector! I fast twice a week, and I give you a tenth of my income.’

“But the tax collector stood at a distance and dared not even lift his eyes to heaven as he prayed. Instead, he beat his chest in sorrow, saying, ‘O God, be merciful to me, for I am a sinner.’ I tell you, this sinner, not the Pharisee, returned home justified before God. For those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”

When We Tell God Our Needs We Become:

_____ Society and “station” no longer apply
“Two men went to the Temple to pray. One was a Pharisee, and the other was a despised tax collector.

Each day holds a surprise. But only if we expect it can we see, hear, or feel it when it comes to us. Let's not be afraid to receive each day's surprise, whether it comes to us as sorrow or as joy It will open a new place in our hearts, a place where we can welcome new friends and celebrate more fully our shared humanity. Henri Nouwen _____ to expose our true character

The Pharisee stood by himself and prayed this prayer: ‘I thank you, God, that I am not like other people—cheaters, sinners, adulterers. I’m certainly not like that tax collector!’

_____ of His Mercy - that we need most
God, be merciful to me, for I am a sinner

The quality of mercy is not strain'd,
It droppeth as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath: it is twice blest;
It blesseth him that gives and him that takes
William Shakespeare

_____ Right with God - as a Gift of Grace.
For those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.” Jesus Luke 18:9,14

My Prayer to Come Back from Crushed

Lord Jesus You know how my spirit and soul have been crushed. You know the way I’ve acted, without humility or mercy. Forgive me. I long to be right with You. Thanks!
